DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

Claims 1-41 are currently pending are the subject of the Office action.

Species Election

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic inventions. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 in view of Cheresch et al. (US Patent Application Publication No. 2004/0214836). For example, the generic inventions encompass multiple species PPI, PP2, Src family kinase species, multiple routes of administration (intracoronary method, intraperitoneal injection; infusional; direct arterial injection; percutaneous administration), multiple treatment modalities (angioplasty; coronary revascularization procedure). The end treatment result would reasonably vary significantly depending on the specific cause of the reperfusion injury, or the specific treatment modality employed, and/or the specific inhibitor of vascular endothelial growth factor-mediated vascular permeability agent utilized. Thus, these species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. Alternatively, In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single disclosed species from the below list for examination purposes.

Art Unit: 1614

Specifically, applicant is required to elect the following:

1) a single disclosed chemically defined inhibitor of vascular endothelial growth factor-mediated vascular permeability; and

2) a single specific route of administration e.g. 2a) intravenous infusion; or 2b) intraarterial, or 2c) intracoronary method; or 2d) percutaneous administration; and

3) a single specific ischemic type e.g. 3a) myocardial infarction, or 3b) stroke, or 3c) compartment syndrome, or 3d) post-pump syndrome; or 3e) angina; and

4a) inhibitor of vascular endothelial growth factor-mediated vascular permeability is administered as part of the cardioplegia solution; or

4b) inhibitor of vascular endothelial growth factor-mediated vascular permeability is not administered as part of the cardioplegia solution.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to the additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species (MPEP 809.02(a)). Claims 1, 14, 18, 21, 22, 24, 33, 34, 35, 41, and 42, are considered generic to the above species.

Inventorship Notice

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
